

GROUND LEASE – RENTAL PROCEDURE October 2022

The Island Housing Trust's ground lease provides procedures for a homeowner who wants to rent their home (or a part of their home) as provided in Article 11 – Assignment and Sublease.

You must secure prior written consent from the Island Housing Trust (IHT), as well as your homeowner or condo association if you are a member, before you rent your home or any room in your home. IHT has full discretion whether or not to consent to the rental of the home.

IHT will make its decision based on purpose and goals of the ground lease. If IHT grants permission for you to rent your home or any part of your home it will be subject to the following conditions:

- Any rental agreement must state that your tenant will be subject to all the terms of your ground lease. A copy of your rental agreement must be provided to IHT
- Any prospective renter must be income qualified, as defined in your ground lease, by IHT. See attached application.
- You may only charge a rental fee that covers your monthly carrying costs for your home (mortgage, taxes, insurance, ground lease fee, condo or homeowner association fees, and utilities) or prorated in the case of a room rental.

All of the terms of your Ground Lease remain in effect and you will be fully responsible for compliance with the Ground Lease, including payment of the ground lease fee, during the term of any rental.

In addition, all rentals must comply with all applicable laws and regulations, as specified in your ground lease, Article 4.1 – Residential Use Only. You (and your tenant) may only use and occupy your home and leased property for residential purpose and any incidental activities related to residential use that are permitted by applicable law and regulations. This includes the state's sanitary code and local health board regulations, which excludes:

- a) Renting basements that don't have two means of egress or exits, and
- b) Renting to more tenants than is allowed under the state's minimum standards for human habitation or your homeowner association's master declaration or condo association's master deed.

As a landlord or potential landlord you need to understand your rights and responsibilities as outlined in the Massachusetts Consumer Guide to Landlord Rights and Responsibilities available on-line and at the Vineyard Housing Office.
